Guidelines for Employees – Return to Office

1. OBJECTIVE

The objective of the guidelines is to outline the organizational norms for Hybrid working (WFO/WFH) model.

2. SCOPE

- These guidelines are applicable to employees supporting the IT business based in India.
- Retainers, contractors and trainees will be governed by specific terms and conditions of their contract with respect to their work locations, if applicable.

3. GUIDELINES COMMENCEMENT AND VALIDITY

The revised Return to Office guidelines will come into force from 1-Mar-2025 and shall remain in force till modified or revoked by the organization.

4. Hybrid Working Guidelines

The hybrid working guidelines outlined below are applicable to all employees:

1. Mavericks from 2023 batch onwards & all HFLX are required to work from the office on all days from their respective Hexaware office locations.
2. All Reserve Talent pool employees across grade are required to work from the office on all days from their respective Hexaware office locations.
3. All employees based in Coimbatore, Dehradun and Ahmedabad (base location) are required to work from office on all days from their respective Hexaware locations.
4. All G9 & Above are required to work from the office for a minimum of four days per week.
5. All employees in enabling/non billable roles upto and including grade G8 are required to work minimum 3 days a week from respective Hexaware office locations. There may be specific unit guidelines for additional days that will be communicated by the unit heads.
6. All employees, irrespective of their role, grade, or location, are required to work from office for a minimum of 12 days in a year, in addition to the guidelines set out herein.

Guidelines for Employees – Return to Office

5. Points to Remember

- The Unit Head can determine which model and days' work best for the unit to ensure collaboration and optimization.
- Any client mandate for account teams will supersede this policy – only client guidelines will be applicable in such cases.
- In addition to the guidelines prescribed, the employee is expected to be in the office on days mandated by the management from time to time, based on need.
- Any location and unit specific guidelines will also supersede this policy.
- This revised guideline may necessitate revocation of a 'Work from Home' approval provided earlier. No requests for Project Releases will be entertained on account of this.
- Employees who travel to locations outside base location for internal/business meetings should record their attendance by swiping their access card in the respective Hexaware offices”.
- A female employee returning from maternity leave is eligible to work from home for up to six months from her date of return from maternity leave.
- Non-compliance to guidelines will impact payroll and/or leave credit.

6. Exception Handling

Management reserves the right to make any amendments to the guidelines or withdraw it any time, with appropriate communication.
